What Is Not Covered

All the above items are not covered for damage due to accident, misuse, alteration, insufficient or improper maintenance, contaminated or poor quality fuel. In the event the warranty is applicable, the dealer is not responsible for any incidental or consequential damages caused by or resulting from the defect, malfunction or failure. Dealer is not responsible to provide alternate transportation prior to or during applicable warranty repairs being performed.

Duties of Warrantor

Upon inspection of the vehicle, if it is determined that the warranty is applicable, the dealer will repair the vehicle. At the dealer's discretion, repairs may be performed utilizing new, remanufactured or recycled components.

Duties of Consumer

In the event of a defect, malfunction or failure that occurs during the warranty period, the consumer must return the vehicle to the selling dealer only and authorize an inspection by the dealer to determine applicability of the warranty. If the warranty is applicable the consumer must give the dealer a reasonable amount of time to perform the necessary repairs. If the warranty is not applicable then the consumer may choose to have the vehicle repaired by the dealer at an agreed upon cost or remove the vehicle from the dealership within a reasonable amount of time.

Non-Transferability

This warranty is limited to the original purchaser of the vehicle only and is not transferable to subsequent purchasers.

No Consequential Damages

In no event shall the dealer be liable for any incidental or consequential damages including, but not limited to, loss related to property other than the vehicle, loss of use, loss of time, inconvenience, or any other economic loss.
